

JALLOSH-2025

The cultural committee of Vidya Vikas Education Society's Vikas College of Arts, Science & Commerce had organized Jallosh- the Annual Intra-Collegiate Cultural Festival on 22nd and 23rd January, 2025.

The festival was full of various events in performing arts, fine arts and literary arts wherein the students showcased their talent in all these arts and skills. The two days cultural extravaganza was inaugurated at the hands of Shri. Sudhakar Pednekar, an alumnus of the college. Shri Rajendra Mokal and Shri Gurudas Chopdekar, alumni of the college, were also present on this occasion as the guests of honour.

The students showcased their talents in the performing arts like dance, singing, mimicry, mono acting. The fine arts like mehendi, rangoli, poster making, collage making, T-shirt painting, face painting, nail art, best out of waste, salad decoration and flower arrangement received a huge response from the students as they participated in these competitions whole-heartedly manifesting the best of their talent in these areas. The literary arts section included essay writing, elocution, debate and poetry reading competitions.

The festival concluded on a happy note with Prize Distribution and Personality Contest, the most attractive annual event in the college. Judging all the aspects of their personality, the participants in the contest were evaluated at three different rounds- written test, interaction and the final round conducted on the stage on the second day of the festival. 95 girls and 126 boys participated in the contest and Miss Vaidehi More and Mr. Harsh Bhosle won the titles of Miss Vikas and Mr Vikas respectively.

The Prize Distribution Ceremony was graced by the presence of Dr. Vinay P. Raut, the Secretary of Vidya Vikas Education Society, Dr. Mrs. Anagha Raut, the Dy CEO of the institution and Adv. Param Yadav, the alumni of the college and a member, Senate of University of Mumbai. 459 students participated in this festival.
