CONSTITUTION DAY

संविधान अमृत महोत्सव : २०२४-२०२५

The 75th anniversary of the Indian Constitution, also known as Constitution Day is a significant occasion in India's history. The celebration of Constitution Day marks the day the Constitution of India was adopted on November 26, 1949 by the Constituent Assembly of India. Constitution Day was first celebrated in 2015, marking the 125th birth anniversary of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar. Constitution Day is a reminder of the values and principles upon which modern India is built

Department of Political Science & NSS unit of Vikas College of Arts, Science & Commerce organized Constitution Day programme on Tuesday, 26th November 2024. Dr. Reshama Anvekar, introduce the theme. Preamble of the constitution read by Prof. Surendra Athawale and Prof. Sambhaji Khandekar in English and Marathi respectively.

Prof. Surendra Athawale brief about the basic constitutional structure of Indian Constitution and its amendments done by Parliament. He elaborates the importance of three main pillars i.e Parliament, Executive, Judiciary System and their functions. They are guided by the Constitution of India. He also explains the recent judgments about the amendments of constitutions. He underlining that every citizen should know the constitutional provisions and important articles in the Constitution. Prof. Sambhaji brief about the making of constitution and its historical development.

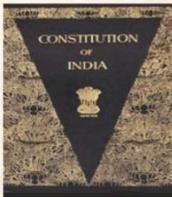

The College also paid homage to the martyrs of the 26/11 terrorist attacks on Mumbai. The 26/11 Martyrs Day is observed in India to honor and remember the brave martyrs who lost their lives in the 2008 Mumbai terrorist attacks. Vice Principal Prof. Vinayak Muley and Mr. Uday Kulkarni, Librarian of the college organized the programme successfully. Dr. Reshama Anvekar extended the vote of thanks.
