Ms. Riddhi,

Thank you very much for having conducted an interactive session on Sense of Responsibility: Key to Safety on Social Media on Friday, 15th February, 2019 for the students of First Year B.Com, BA and BAF classes in our college.

The session was very enlightening and students enjoyed it to its fullest. I am sure it will serve as a guiding pillar for them in future as they have been rightly oriented so as to use social media and internet in a very responsible manner. Such a session was a necessity in the times when the social life is completely being ruled by the social media and internet.

Looking forward to similar co-operation in future.

Report of Spoken Tutorial courses, IIT Bombay

The Spoken Tutorial project, a venture of the "Talk to a Teacher" initiative under the National Mission on Education through Information and Communication Technology, launched by the esteemed Ministry of Education (previously MHRD), Govt of India, is a beacon of hope for promoting IT literacy and enhancing the employment potential of learners in India, all while embracing the power of free and open source software (FOSS).

At the heart of the Spoken Tutorial project lies a noble goal - to promote IT literacy for education and uplift the employment prospects of learners in India, by harnessing the power of free and open source software (FOSS). With ICT being a key player in offering vast employment opportunities to students, the project strives to impart knowledge of essential ICT areas, such as software creation, electronic design automation (IC design), numerical computing, and modeling and simulation, among others.

Through their website, the project endeavors to equip millions across the country with the technical prowess and FOSS expertise that can unlock a world of opportunities, especially for those who may face barriers to software learning. With unwavering dedication and a passion for empowerment, the Spoken Tutorial project is a beacon of hope for the next generation of learners in India.

The Spoken Tutorial is a masterpiece of modern pedagogy, a captivating 10-minute audio-video tutorial that employs the revolutionary screen cast methodology. Unlike conventional video tutorials, the Spoken Tutorial focuses solely on the lesson at hand, without capturing the face of the instructor, thus creating an immersive and distraction-free learning experience for the students.

With each tutorial dedicated to a specific topic, learners can navigate their learning journey with ease and convenience, and acquire skills at their own pace.

The Spoken Tutorial's versatility knows no bounds, for it can be accessed both online and offline, making it an invaluable resource for learners who lack Internet connectivity.
